ALKI / ADMIRAL
AN INVENTORY OF BUILDINGS
AND URBAN DESIGN RESOURCES
COMMENCED IN 1975

HISTORIC SEATTLE PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY
CONSULTANTS: FOLKE NYBERG
VICTOR STEINBRUECK

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
This study and the inventory of buildings was undertaken by the Historic Seattle Preservation and Development Authority and completion was accomplished with the dedicated assistance of its consulting architectural firm. Special thanks to the architectural historian Folke Nyberg who researched the historical data and landmark status of the buildings and provided the primary recommendations. The project was undertaken, prior to the act of H.B. No. 2052 which established the Historic Seattle Preservation and Development Authority, by the architect, Victor Steinbrueck, and the architect, Robert Brechlin.

URBAN DESIGN ELEMENTS

HISTORY

This study has been undertaken by the Historic Seattle Preservation and Development Authority to prepare an inventory of buildings and improve the architectural design of the urban environment of the Admiral housing area and Alki Point. The study includes a thorough inventory of existing buildings and their architectural character.

SIGNIFICANT BUILDINGS

The buildings and structures listed in the inventory have been selected on the basis of their architectural merit and their contribution to the overall architectural character of the community. The inventory includes a variety of buildings, including residential,
commercial, and historic structures.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Admirals Bay area is a unique and architecturally significant community located on the west side of Puget Sound. The area features a range of architectural styles and periods, from early 20th century craftsman homes to modern multi-family housing.

SIGNIFICANT BUILDINGS

The buildings and structures listed in the inventory have been selected on the basis of their architectural merit and their contribution to the overall architectural character of the community. The inventory includes a variety of buildings, including residential,
commercial, and historic structures.
